"STEALING HISTORY" TIMELINE

The idea of creating a new history of the Russian Empire was "brilliantly" implemented by Empress Catherine II.

October
22, 1721,

Tsar Peter I proclaimed the Moscow kingdom the "Russian Empire" and the Muscovites "Russians".

de Brandebourg, dont la santé est entièrement restablie. Les avis de Dantzik portent qu'on y avoit receu une lettre écrite le 18 Novembre dernier par un Polonois, de Lypek en Ukraine sur le Borysthene, au dessous de l'embouchure du Pripecz. Elle contient que les desordres commis par les Moscovites à leur entrée en Ukraine, avoient tellement épouventé les peuples, qu'ils s'estoient sauvez en divers endroits où ils croyoient estre en sureté, avec ce qu'ils pouvoient emporter, laissant le reste en proye aux troupes du Czar. Le Sieur Woynarowski fils de la sœur du General Mazeppa, fut envoyé vers ce Prince par tout le Corps des Cosaques en qualité de Deputé, pour le prier de les maintenir dans les privileges qui leur avoient esté accordez par ses predecesseurs, & luy représenter que les degasts que son armée avoit faits en leur país, les mettoient hors d'estat de s'assembler & de prendre les armes pour son service. Le Czar fut tellement offensé de la liberté de ces remonstrances, qu'il ordonna qu'on fit mourir cruellement en public le Sieur Voynarowski: mais un Officier le laissa échapper, & il se sauva vers son oncle Mazeppa. Ce General irrité du traitement fait à son neveu, alla le 10 Novembre joindre le Roy de Suède avec cinq cents hommes & douze des principaux Magistrats ou Officiers de la Nation. L'armée Suédoise estoit campée sur les terres de ce General, près d'une ville appelée Septaty, située à douze lieuës de Czernikowie, & à pareille distance de Starodub & des frontieres de Moscovie. Elle est entourée de la riviere de Desna & de marais qui enferment de grands villages, avec des

The new version of Russian history was published.

1792

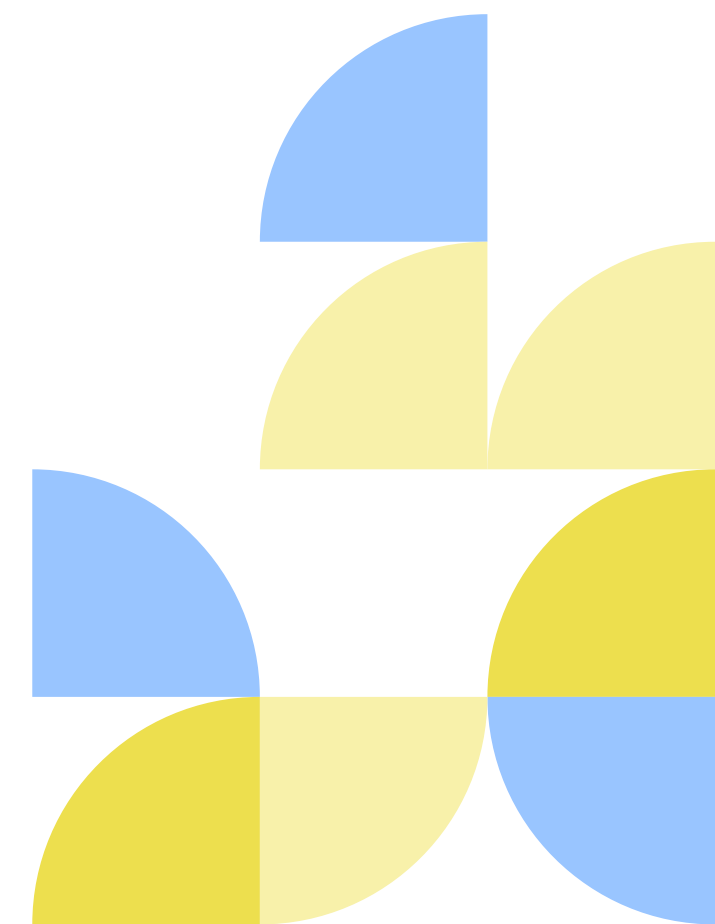

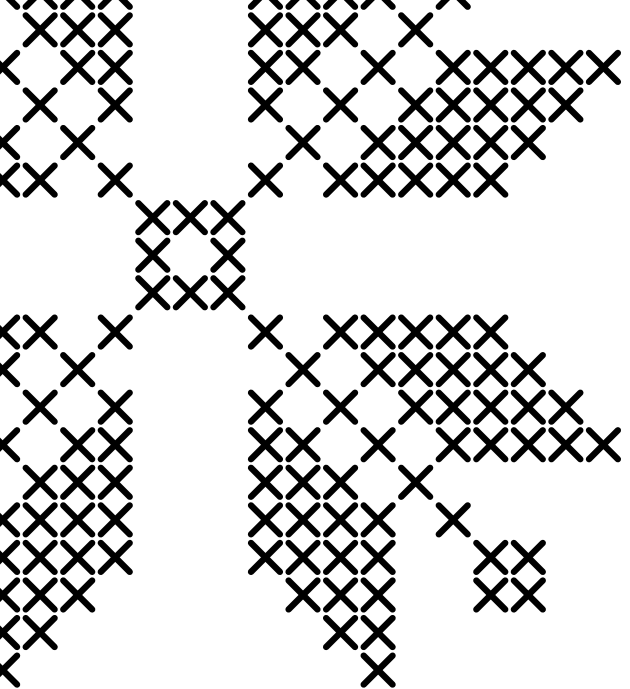

Historians of tsarist Russia properly began to reproduce myths about the cradle of three brotherly peoples and that "Kyiv Rus" was the first Russian state.

The imperial scheme of history was unbreakable until 1904, when it was brilliantly refuted by Mykhailo Hrushevskyi

1904

The main communists - Stalin, Zhdanov and Kirov - began to restore the imperial scheme of the historian Catherine II.

Why these numbers ?

- 1729 A decree by Tsar Peter II required all state decrees and orders to be rewritten from Ukrainian into Russian.

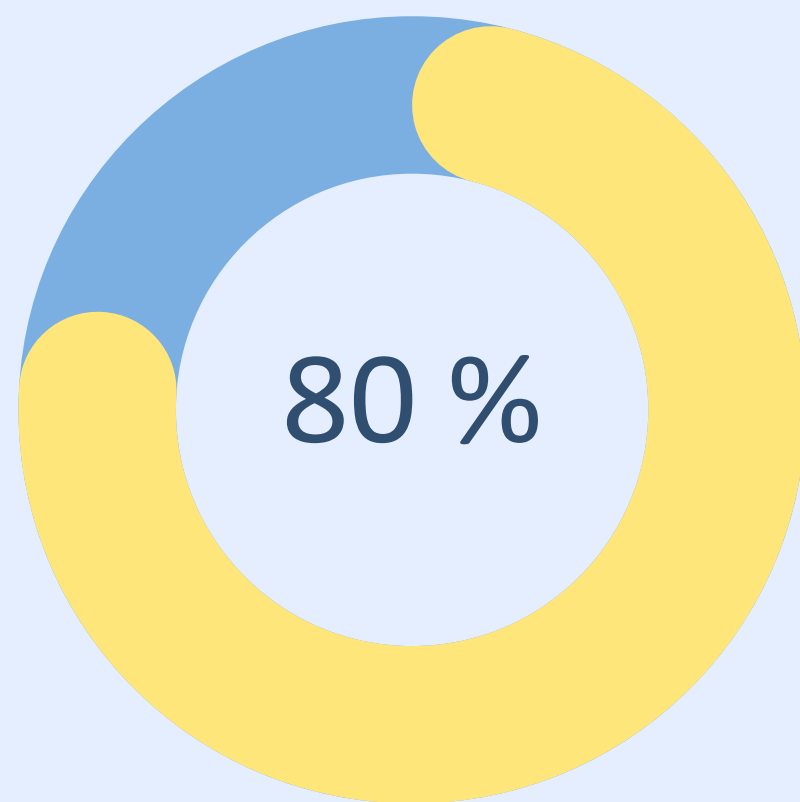

- Executed Renaissance

The Communist Party considered literature and art as one of the links of the cultural front. In 1937, the most mass execution of Ukrainian intelligentsia took place. As a result, Ukrainian culture suffered catastrophic losses and our culture is poorly known in the world

- The Ems Decree, issued by the Russian Emperor Alexander II in 1876, prohibits the import, printing or translation of any works in the Ukrainian language.
